

Biography

#Opportunity
toGrow

3rd Grade

I am grateful and enthusiastic to join the Scholar Academy team. Originally from Montana, I graduated from the University of Utah in 2003 with my teaching degree. My professional career has spanned seventeen years training adult learners in the healthcare field. The timing is now perfect to return to my greatest joy and first love of teaching children. I am so happy to join the third grade team and look forward to an adventurous year.