Spanish

Owls ¿como están? Me llamo Sandra Arslanian. I was born in Dominican Republic and survived my teenage years in NYC, New York. This is my 6-year in education and my 4-year as the Spanish Department Chair at Scholar Academy. I love sharing with our students the beauty of being able to express themselves in another language and the wonders of the countries where the language is spoken. I received a B.A. in Communications from BYU-Idaho with an emphasis in Spanish. I am currently working in my APT Certification as well as Education Technology Endorsement.

I've been married 7-years to Spencer, we have three wonderful kids and a very silly beagle. We have lived in Tooele since 2010. For fun I love cooking, baking, dancing, and spending time with my family. I am looking forward to another great year, full of opportunities to be creative, learn and try new things. I hope you are as excited as I am about this incredible journey.
